AUSTRIA PREPARING TO PROCLAIM STATE OF SIEGE IN VIENNA Britain Prepared to Fight Ten Years For Complete Victory, If Necessary

CARPATHIAN STRUGGLE STILL MOST IMPORTANT

London Regards Russ Advance TREASURY BILLS There As Biggest Feature.

Western Arena Quiet--Dardanelles Advance Expected.

London, April 14.—The struggle for the last of the Garpathian pass remaining in the hands of the Garmanic allies still holds the centre of the war stage. In London the critical importance of the series of fiscre battles being waged along the eastern front from Bartield to Bollowina is so fully recognized that the activities in other fields appear relatively of minor importance.

Each side is making claims of success. The Austriana saert that the Muscovite inveders have been hold in check since March 20, but an official statement from Petrograd declares that flighting is in progress more than fourthean miles to the south of Dukla pass, which would indicate a condicarable Brussian salvance in the direction of the Hungarian plains. The Teutonic forces still hold Unsolvens, and continue their ceaseless counter-attack, but last night the Bussians sunounced the capture of three more heights within four of fire miles of that vital gateway.

In the western areas of the war the allies have done little in the past two or three days beyond the consolidation of the positions ow in their hands, preparatory to another effort to out the Germans from their entereable positions as 48. Miles!

MUST BEAT GERMANY INTO THE VERY DUST

Stripped of Seized Provinces and Thoroughly Humiliated.

Britain Will Fight Ten Years, If Needed For That End.

(By Times Special Wire.)

New York, April 14.—A special cable to the Tribune from Le don aya:

The Tribune is able to state on the highest authority that all Germany's extra diplomatic peace efforts, such, for instance, as interview with the Pope—have been vised in Berlin before being allowed to be sent to New York. The Socialist propagands, suggestions, too, for terms of peace on the lines of the status quo ante bellum, etc., will be unavailing.

"Germany must be beaten into the dust," said the Tribune's ority.

"How long do you think the war will last?" was the opening

"I never did think it would be a short war," was the answ Pressed for a more exact statement, the reply came, after a bri but thoughtful pause: "It will not be over this time next year

There's a breezy little chappie at the village grocery store, who is never really happy unless talking bout the war. If you want to start him blowing, just go in and how some soap: ask him bow the war is going, then he'll war. If you want to start him blowing, just go in and buy some soap; sak him how the war is going, then he limid you out this dops: "Say, there isn't nothin' to it this here war ain't goin' right; I could show 'end to how to it; I could teach 'em how to fight! This here diggin' great big trenches, to my mind ain't worth a pin: might as well ait home on benches, they won't never reach Berlin. They should get me as adviser, I would fight on my own plan; in a week If dhave the Kaiser wishin' he was not a man." He can tell you every blunder since the starting of the war, he is certainly a wonder, but likewise an awful bore. If you want to start him blowing, just go in and buy some soap, ask him how the war's going, then he'll hand you out his dope.

SUCCESS

The great big word in a man's world to-day is the word "Success."

"NUCCESS.

(g Newly man acknowledges that success is more a matter of the mind than the musele. And knowing this, what a powerful factor our surroundings are! The home is of incalculable importance to a man, and saything that contributes to the attractiveness of a hone cannot be overestimated. To create a home, to ministin a home, is an inhorn impiration,—and to make it complete in the blending of the beautiful thing that go to make a home what it sheed be, do not cerelook one of its greatest helps: the VICTROLL, the great musle maker, the instrument that will play "Hone, Sweet Home" for you in a way that will make you realise that your home is Nature's Nest and the most beautiful apport on earth.
